RICHMOND, CALIFORNIA, FRIDAY, MAY 21, 1920

Will Secure 80,000 Names in California

Anti-Oriental Measure Petition Must Be Ready July 15

SACRAMENTO, May 20.—Within ten days the initiative petitions to place an anti-Oriental measure on the November ballot will be put in circulation in California, according to Senator J. H. Inman, president of the California Oriental Exclusion League, which will direct the circulation of the petitions.

A committee consisting of Inman, State Controller John S. Chambers and V. S. McClatchy is now going over the proposed measure to whip it into final shape, and then the petitions will be ready for signatures.

While only 55,064 signatures are necessary to qualify the measure, it is the plan to secure at least 80,000 names, 40,000 of which will be obtained in the South and 40,000 in the North.

The petitions will be distributed among the following organizations: Native Sons of the Golden West, American Legion, Oriental Exclusion League, Foreign War Veterans, Labor Unions and Farmer's associations.

The petitions must be ready by July 15, and for this reason an active campaign will be waged during the next thirty days.

While some opposition has been voiced against the anti-leasing clause in the measure, it has been definitely decided by those preparing it that to eliminate the lease clause would be to destroy the effectiveness of the proposed law.

Albany "Hooch" Has Vigorous Kick

(Albany Argus)

Albany "hooch" (and there are indications of a large supply) is in evidence nearly every night on the edges and occasionally in the center of the city. Where the "hooch" comes from is not much of a mystery even to an amateur hawkshaw or a hick guardian of the peace.

At the county line may be seen boys and young men almost any night "tead-up" on this vile wood alcohol product that soon eats the lining from the "crown sheet" and does irreparable harm.

Germany Must Pay 30 Billions War Debt to the Allies

The official report of the Anglo-French conference which closed last week at Hythe, is interpreted to read that Germany must pay thirty billions of dollars, to the allies.

Germany will be permitted to issue bonds covering this indebtedness.

This action may permit Germany to issue bonds and thereby enable France to discount a part of her claim on Germany, permitting France to settle her debts to the United States.

Counterfeit $20 Note Look Out For It

A twenty dollar federal note, bearing the portrait of President Cleveland, has reached the western states and the coast, and is said to be a clever counterfeit. The California Bankers association bulletin gives the following description of this photographic production which is difficult for the average person to distinguish from the genuine $20 paper note:

On the Federal Reserve Bank of New York; checked letter A; plate No. 11; Carter-Glass, Secretary of the Treasury, John Burke, Treasurer of the United States; portrait of Cleveland.

June Wedding Gifts

June Weddings will be numerous this season, and scores of announcements are made each week in advance of the coming nuptial events which are so important to the "high contracting parties." If you are puzzled as to what kind of a wedding gift to make, consult A. F. Edwards, the pioneer jeweler at 1227-29 Broadway, Oakland. If it is a diamond, jewelry, silverware or anything required by the most exacting or fastidious, Edwards will please you. He has a number of Richmond and Contra Costa county patrons of many years standing, some of them since '79.

Emil Esola of the First National Bank force is enjoying his summer vacation, and will include Southern California in his itinerary.

Motor Truck Caravan Aviators to Hold Big Alameda County Elks to Raise Maternity Home Fund

The motor truck caravan which is making a tour of Alameda county, arrived on time yesterday and was taken care of by Mayor Jim Long, who had made all the necessary arrangements for the care and entertainment of the 3.0 persons who were in the party of visitors.

A dance was held in Lincoln auditorium last night, a most enjoyable affair.

Prices Beginning to Hit Toboggan in the West

From eastern cities comes the report that prices in clothing have taken a decided tumble, and that the high cost is starting on the toboggan.

Clothing has received a cut of 33 1-3 per cent and the $75 suit of wartime shoddy now bears the figures of $45 and $50.

San Francisco clothiers have taken the cue, and the show window displays have the appearance of former days when a suit of clothes could be purchased for a sane price.

Pleads Guilty to Charge of Receiving Stolen Goods

Knabe Atowich, a second hand dealer of this city, pleaded guilty before Federal Judge Maurice T. Doelling Tuesday to the charge of receiving approximately $1000 worth of articles that had been stolen from Santa Fe freight cars by members of a switching crew in the Richmond yards.

Two indictments had been returned against Atowich and he was fined $250 on each. Seven members of the switching crew who had previously pleaded guilty, were sentenced to thirty days each in jail and five others were fined $250 each.

Underground Wires

It is not generally known that Richmond has underground telephone wires, and more are promised by the corporation. At 23d and San Pablo for a distance of several blocks at this lively center the subterranean system of wires has been installed. Keep your eye on 23d and Macdonald.

Sugar Refinery Advances Wage

The California Hawaiian Sugar Refinery Co. has advanced the salaries of piece work employees 10 per cent. The raise effects 750 persons.

The biggest aviation meet ever staged in California will be held tomorrow and Sunday at Durant Field, Oakland.

All the aviators for aircraft corporations have donated their services to benefit the Alameda county Salvation Army fund.

The program will start tomorrow noon with a group of 40 or more army planes in different formations flying over the city, followed by a machine gun battle, such as was enacted over the trenches in France, several of the world's famous aces taking part.

This and That

One hundred per cent American is something to be proud of, but 500 per cent for profit is somewhat inconsistent.

A "sport" fisherman who will hook a basketful of undersized trout in violation of the fish and game laws, should be fined the limit. Also give the fellow, who shoots a mother quail with a nest of eggs the same dose.

An Albany commuter dug 22 lbs of volunteer potatoes from 10 hills. Even nature will assist a fellow in beating the high cost, if he will not insist on being too much of a slacker.

The meadow lark with his inspiring notes as he trills from the telephone wire in early morning is about the last of the song birds to survive the vicious attacks of the saucy English sparrow.

It can't be done. A Kansas City man sought a divorce from his better half on the grounds that she failed to mend his clothes. The Judge claimed that this inattention of the wife was insufficient cause for action; that if it was, he might even get one himself.

"The amount of our war debt," began the bore, "is approximately—"

"Speaking of war debts," broke in one of his listeners, "how about that 50-franc note I loaned you in France?"—Home Sector.

Thirty airplanes carry mail between New York and Chicago. More than 100,000 letters are carried daily. The New York-Chicago-Omaha-San Francisco airplane service will be in full operation by next fall, says Superintendent Riddle of the Chicago mail service.

The predicted famine in candy now enroute and 'billed to be here within 60 days, is said to be due to the nation-wide shortage of sugar. Following and connecting with this near calamity, dentists will have time on their hands, and can enjoy their summer vacations with a let-down on nerve strain. It's an ill wind, etc.

Tobacco wagons are increasing at a ratio almost appalling, and also tobacco stores. But the old Indian sign, with his handful of wooden cigars extended, has been relegated to the ash can, and real art pictures extolling the virtues of the cigarette are substituted.

The Terminal is on file in all the public libraries in Contra Costa county and has hundreds of readers.

By the co-operative action of the Benevolent and Protective Order of Elks of Alameda county, representing the prosperous lodges of Alameda, Berkeley and Oakland, a movement is on foot to raise a fund for the Salvation Army to establish a maternity home in Alameda county.

The cost of the institution will be $120,000, of which Alameda county will contribute $60,000, the other half to come from the state fund of the Salvation Army.

The funds will be carefully supervised insuring a good business administration of the affairs of the home. Aside from a humanitarian viewpoint, taxpayers will be saved many thousands of dollars by the benevolent service rendered by the rescue and maternity home.

Elks Lose Sunday's Game by 7-6 Score

The San Leandro Tractors, considered one of the fastest near-professional teams in the state, defeated the Elks Sunday by the narrow margin of one score, the visitors winning the game by a score of 7 to 6.

More Store Rooms

Four new stores have located on West Macdonald this month and more coming. A new five store-room block is being planned for Third and Macdonald.

POLITICAL NOTES

There will be something stirring in politics very soon in Contra Costa county, as the time draws near for candidates to arrange their fences and get ready with the glad hand. Two superior judges are to be elected, a state senator and an assemblyman. There is going to be some "fur flying" for assemblyman, as there are about seven "still hunters" laying in a supply of long range guns and other war materials.

The International Typographical Union's annual election of officers is held in the United States and Canada next Wednesday. San Francisco Union No. 21 has 1176 members, the largest in the history of the union. George A. Tracy, for many years president of No. 21, is a candidate for re-election, and will do doubt receive his usual large majority. Tracy ran for congress several years ago and was only defeated by a few votes by Hays of San Jose, who barely nosed him out.

A trained postoffice clerk is required to memorize 5000 names or numbers. This is not all of his duties. He must separate sixteen letters a minute, and make a rating of 95 per cent on each year's examination. His wages are so low that he is often compelled to work some side issue in order to "even up." He must stand for a severe physical and mental examination, and receives 39c per hour for 48 hours hard drill. The ordinary "strong arm" unskilled working mutt receives $48 for a 44 hour week. Where does the postal clerk get off at? The Commission on Postoffice Employees Salaries at Washington, appointed at the beginning of the war, should come out of its comatose state and do something besides politics.

Supreme Court Again Defers Ruling on Dry Amendment

The U. S. supreme court Monday took a recess until June 1st, failing to reach a decision as to the validity of the prohibition amendment. The faint hopes of the wets that the amendment will be declared unconstitutional, seem to have little encouragement. It is believed by those who claim to be "on the inside" in Washington that the validity of the amendment will stand status quo.

HOMEIS LOST BY 15-MINUTE DELAY

Aged Resident Sees Home He Built 34 Years Ago Go Under Hammer

San Francisco.—Because Mrs. Elizabeth Harley of 3019 Sacramento street was fifteen minutes late returning with the money to meet her bid on the James Geary property at 2370 Sutter street, put up at auction, the little house that Geary built thirty-four years ago with his own hands fell to the Security Savings Bank in satisfaction of the judgment of $2,368.14 obtained by the bank against C. D. Meloy, administrator of the estate of Emily P. Geary, and against James Geary, her widower, and Hazlett Lee Pelton, her grandson.

The little house was sold at auction at the Polk street entrance of the City Hall, while Geary, 81 years old, waited on a bench in the Civic Center plaza to learn what happened. Mrs. Harley was the successful bidder, offering $2,500 for the property. It was necessary for her to go to the bank for the money, and she was allowed until 1:45 o'clock to return. Court Commissioner Martin P. Bruton, who conducted the auction, waited until 2 o'clock, and then, since Mrs. Harley had not returned, reopened the auction. The bank repeated its bid and was awarded the property.

Fifteen minutes later Mrs. Harley came back with the money, but too late to make her bid good. Geary says he was married thirty-two years ago to a widow, learning after the marriage that she had a grandson, Hazlett L. Pelton, by a previous marriage. He deeded the Sutter street property to her.

Later, he said, she deeded it to Pelton without informing her husband, and Pelton mortgaged it for $2,000. Mrs. Geary died four years ago. The property is said to be worth about $4,000.

Under the law a year is allowed in which the property may be redeemed before final title passes to the bank.

A prayer meeting was held at Geary's house by Rev. Frederick Doane of Mizpah Presbyterian Church and several friends who prayed that the house might be bought by some one who would allow Geary to keep possession.

SOCIALISTS NAME DEBS FOR PRESIDENT

Federal Prisoner Is Selected as Candidate at New York Convention

New York.—The national convention of the Socialist party May 13th acclaimed Eugene V. Debs its candidate for the fifth time for President of the United States.

Seymour Stedman of Chicago, general counsel of the party, was nominated for Vice President by unanimous vote on the second ballot. The first vote for him was 106 against 26 for Mrs. Kate Richards O'Hare, of Kansas City.

In nominating Debs the Socialist party of America signified its determination "not to recede one inch from our revolutionary programme," Morris Hillquit, of New York, leader of the "conservative" forces, declared. "Socialism in the United States has not changed and does not intend to change," he said.

Another ovation greeted his declaration. A special committee of five, headed by Hillquit, left for Washington where it had an appointment with Attorney General Palmer to plead for amnesty for all "political prisoners" throughout the country.

New York.—The National Civic Federation through its president, Alton B. Parker, announced May 14th it had filed with President Wilson a protest against recognition of the Soviet government of Russia and had telegraphed all prospective presidential candidates asking them to define their position on the subject. The telegrams were signed by hundreds of prominent men and women.

San Francisco.—A man who says he is Jim Koster and that he is 90 years old was found wandering near Haight and Stanyan streets at 3 o'clock a. m. May 13th, by the police. He could not tell anything about his family or where he lived. He was taken to the Detention Hospital.

$50,000 DRUGS SEIZED IN RAID

Five Men Arrested When Federal Agents and Police Raid Hotel

San Francisco.—In a raid upon the D'Olorono Hotel at 55 Columbus avenue, May 14th, the Federal authorities and the police found narcotics valued at more than $50,000 and nearly five hundred gallons of wine, whisky and gin. Five men were arrested by the police. They are: Peter Sabores, John Nelson, Camille Pardie and John Oroguen.

With the discovery, the Federal operatives believe the center of a wholesale drug ring has been found. The place has been under the eye of the authorities for some time.

According to the police, the liquor was kept in a small room between the barber shop and the hotel lobby. The narcotics were found in a large trunk in the basement.

The five men were charged with violating the national prohibition act, the Harrison narcotic act and the Internal Revenue laws. The raid was conducted by A. A. Elliott of the Internal Revenue Department; J. W. Smith, customs service; Inspectors Otto Thompson and William Lyons. Police Sergeant Peter Heinrichs and Policeman James Rae.

The authorities then raided the Eiffel Tower Hotel, across the street, and Joe Guerrero and Bee Olano were arrested and charged with violating the national prohibition act. Several bottles of liquor were found in the place.

SHIPPING BOARD PUTS 563,813 TONS ON PACIFIC

Within the past nine months the United States Shipping Board has put 563,813 deadweight tons of shipping in the Pacific, has established a coastwise service of 16 vessels in the Far East, running from North China to Calcutta, and has arranged for the addition of 14 big passenger lines to trans-Pacific trade, according to an announcement of the board's office.

The Far East coastwise service is unique in that none of the vessels touch at an American port and it is as distinctively Far Eastern as if it were being operated by China, India or Japan. The object of this service is to supply "feeders" for the trans-Pacific routes recently established or added to by the Shipping Board in the allocation of vessels to American Pacific ports. The boats operate on the routes lateral to the transoceanic routes, serving the same purpose as railroad short lines connecting with overland business. The boats average 4000 deadweight tons and are proving a big factor in opening up the vast resources of North China, the Shipping Board said.

An important contemplated route is that between Puget Sound points and Buenos Aires by way of the Straits of Magellan. It has been found that this route is approximately 1000 miles shorter than the Panama canal route. A boat a month will be put on this route and the service will be established within 60 days, the board said. The route will be a new one for American trade in every sense of the word.

New routes created or added to by the Shipping Board on the Pacific in the last nine months are: San Francisco to Singapore, Ceylon, Straits Settlements; Portland to North China ports; around the world, starting from San Francisco and Japanese, Chinese and Indian points, going through the Suez canal to European points and thence to the Atlantic; Puget Sound points to San Francisco, San Pedro and through the canal to European points; Puget Sound to New Zealand and Australia.

These routes have meant the employment of 25 Shipping Board boats clearing out of San Francisco, four out of Los Angeles, 23 out of Seattle and 12 out of Portland. The 14 passenger boats, the first of which will be put on about Sept. 1, will be in addition to those noted. These passenger liners, which will be palatial, will clear out of Puget Sound points and San Francisco and will all be used on the Far Eastern routes.

A regular route between Puget Sound points and San Francisco and the west coast of South America is in contemplation.

Two Priests Arrested. Florence, Italy.—Two priests were arrested May 7th on charge of having stolen a bust of Antonio Canova, the celebrated Italian sculptor, an altar by Luca Della Robbia, the fifteenth century sculptor, and other art treasures from the Abbey of Arcevia. Copies of the original treasures were substituted by the thieves. The police have recovered the altar.

HOUSER IS CLEARED SAYS PALMER

Spokane Grand Jury Profiteering Charges Unsubstantiated, Report He Gets

Washington.—Federal investigation has not sustained charges that Max H. Houser, second vice president of the United States Grain Corporation, had used his office to manipulate grain prices and reap immense profits, Attorney General Palmer announced May 13th.

The investigation was made at Houser's request after a Spokane Grand Jury had made public accusations, although it returned no indictment. United States Attorney Humphreys of Portland, Ore., was designated to conduct the investigation, and his findings, together with a report by George R. Mayo, special accountant for the Department of Justice, were made public by Palmer.

Humphreys summed up the results of his examination in the statement that the Grand Jury's charges "were without foundation in fact."

"I find that Houser, personally, and through his milling companies, did not make immense profits," Humphreys stated. "The profits were small. There was no violation of law, no improper use by Houser of his position, and no evidence of manipulations of wheat prices by officials of the grain corporation. On the contrary, the evidence indicates that Houser sacrificed his time and business to the grain corporation."

The Grand Jury report accused Houser of having caused the publication of articles saying that unless farmers sold their wheat they would be liable to prosecution. Humphreys said such an article had been published, but that there has been no evidence showing Houser had "inspired or approved it."

All newspapers in zone No. 10, of which Houser had charge, were advised by him immediately that the article was erroneous, the report said.

Net profits of the Pacific Grain Company and the Portland Flouring Mills Company, both owned by Houser, were said by Mayo to have been equal to 4.4-5 per cent of the invested capital for the period covered in the Grand Jury charges. He added that his investigation disclosed no foundation for the charge that "half a dozen concerns" own all of the milling industry in the Northwest, citing the record of Federal licenses issued to 273,000,000 corporations "with 232 different owners."

KILLING OF BANKER IN L. A. NARRATED

Los Angeles.—George Goldbach, 28 years old, said to have been at one time an inmate of a hospital for the insane, confessed, the police announced, that he had killed H. J. Robbins, retired banker of Shelton, Neb., the night of May 3, because Robbins "tried to crowd him off the sidewalk."

Goldbach was taken into custody two days ago and held for observation.

Goldbach, according to the police, told of meeting Robbins, who was 68 years old, early the night of May 3. "He seemed to want to crowd me off the sidewalk," Goldbach was quoted. "That made me mad. I hit him three times. When he fell I took a rope from around my waist and started to tie his hands with it. The rope slipped and went around his neck. Then I drew it tight and choked him to death. I did not intend to kill him when I started."

Goldbach declared, according to the police, he had no remembrance of hiding the body under two bales of straw in the rear of a vacant house where it was found the next morning.

OFFICERS UNCOVER STILL AND BRANDY IN CASTRO VALLEY

Oakland.—In a raid at the Felix Arnold ranch in Castro valley, near Hayward, Prohibition Enforcement Officers A. R. Shurtliff and F. E. Adams discovered a large still in operation and found two attendants caring for the product.

A shed near the still revealed 700 gallons of raisin mash and 75 gallons of "grappa," commonly known as "jackass" brandy.

Arnold and the two employees, Andrew Borden and Amati Disero, were placed under arrest on the charge of conspiring to violate the national prohibition law. This is the first conspiracy charge in the state since the advent of national prohibition. Under the new law conspiracy is a felony and the crime is punishable by two years in prison.

The officers cooled off the still and confiscated it, with the mash and the finished product. Arnold, Borden and Disero were brought before Federal Commissioner Francis Krull and held to answer for trial in the United States District court. Fifteen hundred dollars in Liberty bonds was put up for their appearance in court.

Arnold has been ranching in the Castro valley for a number of years and has a family.

HONOLULU GETS NEXT FORESTERS CONVENTION

San Francisco Man Made High Chief Ranger

Berkeley.—The nineteenth annual convention of the Pacific district, Ancient Order of Foresters, closed May 13 with a banquet at the Hotel Whitecotton. Nearly 300 delegates have been in attendance at the convention.

Honolulu was selected as the next meeting place for the annual convention at a business meeting this morning. The sum of $500 was appropriated to the National Foresters' memorial fund, and a resolution was adopted calling for the preservation of the redwoods.

Before the end of the closing session a resolution favoring anti-Japanese legislation, which had been considered at previous meetings, was passed. The resolution favors any steps that are now being taken to have laws, either state or national, passed to preserve California for Americans.

It further recites that it appears that the Japanese are making a peaceful invasion of California and are attempting to crowd the Americans from the rich valley lands, where the Nipponese are rapidly gaining the upper hand.

Officers elected at the closing session follow:

High chief ranger, Walter Reed of San Francisco; sub high chief ranger, E. C. Risi of Oakland; high court treasurer, R. Eber of San Francisco; high court secretary, James H. Duncan of San Francisco; high court senior woodward, M. F. Marshall of San Jose; high court junior woodward, William Trathen of Grass Valley; high court senior beadle, Thos. F. Shaw of Oakland; high court junior beadle, Dr. A. C. Thompson of Reno, Nev.; permanent secretary, John Falconer of San Francisco; high court trustees, A. L. Butler of Los Angeles; S. J. Madeira of Mendocino City and M. P. Howe of Petaluma.

EVILS IN "DRY" LAW SEEN BY MARSHALL

Richmond.—Vice President Marshall, speaking before the Virginia Bar Association, declared that if national prohibition had been considered by the Senate in secret session not 20 votes would have been cast for it.

Asserting that there should be less tinkering with the Constitution the Vice President expressed the opinion that constitutional amendments had "brought a very large measure of evil to the Republic."

Marshall predicted that in the future the country would be faced by the question of Government of law or of men, declaring that only two men—Samuel Gompers and Judge Elbert H. Gary—now are consulted on public issues.

By a rising vote the association favored the nomination of Marshall for the Presidency.

San Francisco.—Elizabeth A. Murphy, 13 years old, 4811 Webster street, Oakland, was killed instantly when she was struck by a street car at Park boulevard and East Twentieth street, Oakland. Her body was lodged under the trucks and it was necessary to summon the Fire Department to remove it.

San Francisco.—While the lobby below was thronged with men and women and the orchestra was playing, two women, Mrs. Harry Harrington of Los Angeles, and her afternoon guest, Mrs. J. E. M. Roberts, wife of a London mining engineer, were held up and robbed of diamond jewelry valued at $10,000.

M. C. SERGEANT NEARLY BECOMES BLUEBEARD

How Sergt. A. C. Fuller of the United States Marine Corps just missed being a rival of Walter Andrew Watson, the Los Angeles "bluebeard," by annexing to himself a string of 35 wives, was told today at the Marine Corps Recruiting Headquarters, 320 Market street, San Francisco, Cal., much to the chagrin of the sergeant, who had hoped to keep this chapter of his life a deep, dark secret.

The sergeant, equipped with field map and pocket compass chanced to visit the Sultan of Bontoc and after being entertained at a typical Bontoc banquet, at which roast dog was the piece de resistance, made boast of the fact that, although he had never visited Bontoc before, he could give

This he proceeded to do with the aid of field map and trusty compass, much to the amazement of the native ruler, who promptly offered recognition of his "supernatural" powers by bestowing upon him 40 acres of choice rice lands, and his pick of 35 of the fairest maidens of his harem.

Fuller vigorously denied it today, but a brother marine who accompanied him on his jaunt, testified that he was about to accept, when he discovered that the Bontoc customs required marriage ceremonies lasting over a period of three months for one acquiring as many as 35 wives, and his furlough being up in another 48 hours, he was reluctantly forced to decline.

GIRL DRUGGED ON U. S. SHIP

Woman Found Unconscious After Two Men on Nebraska Induced Her to Drink

Vallejo.—A statement that they took Mrs. Mildred Boyd of Denver to the general hospital here, unconscious, May 12, after she was alleged to have been given two drinks of a mysterious liquor on board the battleship Nebraska here, was made by the police here.

The police said they answered an ambulance call from the ship to take the woman ashore, but when they arrived she had been brought to land.

The names of the two men who, Mrs. Boyd said, gave her the liquor, could not be learned, they said.

In a statement to the police, Mrs. Boyd said she was married in Denver to an enlisted man who deserted her in Portland, Ore. She went to San Francisco and then came here after learning that her husband had a friend aboard the vessel. She could not find this friend, but was taken in hand by the two enlisted men who gave her the drink, according to her story. She said also she carried $5 and a return ticket to San Francisco, which she was unable to locate.

MRS. SAMUEL GOMPERS DIES FROM PARALYSIS

Washington.—Mrs. Samuel Gompers, wife of the president of the Federation of Labor, died May 6th at her home here. She had been in failing health two years.

At the time of her death she had been in a state of coma for twenty-four hours.

Mrs. Gompers was born in London and came to this country with her parents when 3 years old. Three years later she began work as a tobacco stripper in the factory where Gompers was employed as a cigar-maker. She was married in 1867 at the age of 15 years.

Mrs. Gompers is survived by three sons, Henry J. Samuel, and Alexander J. Gompers.

ONE WRECK TOO MANY REVEALS LIQUID CARGO

Ontario, Cal.—Pete Carbone drove a big truck, loaded with boxed oranges, along the highway near here May 12. He collided with a wagon occupied by a Mexican family, and four of them were hurt, but he drove on; next he struck an automobile driven by Charles J. Haines of Santa Monica, wrecked it, injured Haines, and landed his own truck in the ditch.

Officers arrested Carbone. They began to remove the orange crates so they could right the truck, and then they discovered 11 barrels, containing 550 gallons of wine, under the oranges.

Carbone faces charges of driving without lights, reckless driving, failing to halt after injuring others and violating the prohibition enforcement statutes.

SLEUTHS TRAIL PORTER IN AUTO TO RUM LOCKER

Los Angeles.—Thomas R. Abernethy, a Pullman porter, running between Los Angeles and El Paso, acquired a handsome home, an extensive automobile and a saddle horse after prohibition became a fact. His prosperity attracted Federal agents. They found two cases of whisky in a locker on his car in the Tucson yards. Abernethy was arrested here, charged with smuggling liquor from Mexico.

SCHOOL DAYS

Just Folks

By EDGAR A. GUEST

A LONGED-FOR JOY.

I do not envy millionaires. The many things that they can do. Though endless bank accounts are theirs. And mine last week I overdraw. I do not sit around and sigh. And wall in sorrow's gloomy way. That they have things I cannot buy—I don't want all their joys today. I would not look on life as grim. Because I own no gilt-edged stocks. But I confess, I envy him Who buys his golf balls by the box.

I would not be a millionaire. To deck myself with diamond rings And have expensive clothes to wear And luxuries that money brings. I'm satisfied to plod along. And count the cost of what I get; A toller in the larger throng. I'm quite content to be, and yet Whenever wealthy men I see. And at our club they move in flocks. One of the few I'd like to be. Who buy their golf balls by the box.

A new ball, smooth and shining white. To me is a seventy-five-cent treat; When I indulge in such delight. I must cut down on what I eat. And only now and then I dare. To put a new ball into play. But he who is a millionaire. May start a fresh one every day. I'd be a monarch, crowned and throned. And count myself secure from shocks. If ever coin enough I owned. To buy my golf balls by the box. Age

By GEORGE MATTHEW ADAMS

IT is only as we recognize the Minute upon Minute, Hour upon Hour, Day upon Day, philosophy of Time that we are able to enter into the serious lesson that Age has for us all. For Age has no philosophy excepting the philosophy of accomplishment, as it matures. Even as you think, you Age. And yet in Aging you are liable to realize the full meaning of every breath that you breathe and of every single effort you make.

In the Sunset is reviewed the glory of the day. Age is Experience—crystallized. Age is Initiative—worked out. Age is the Dream—come true. Age is the Tree—full grown. Age is the Business Successful—a power in its area. What you are is the sum of your days in Age—Averaged.

In your Success is reflected the product of every one of your hours. Age is not the mere piling up of years, for many a man is old at thirty, and many a man is young at eighty. For Youth is as elastic as Age, and Age is as elastic as Youth. Let the Experience of Age ever be a teacher to you. Let it Admonish as well as Encourage you.

Floury Faces. "When I was a kid we used to throw flour. You could see faces' full of flour." "If you judge by flour on the face," responded old Uncle Pennywise, "my pieces think life is a perpetual Hal-lo-e-n."—Mistral Magazine.

The Way It Goes. Farmer Brown—What's your son Hiram doing in the big city these days? Farmer Green—Studying for a doctor. Farmer Brown—What's the matter? Doctor too lazy to study himself?

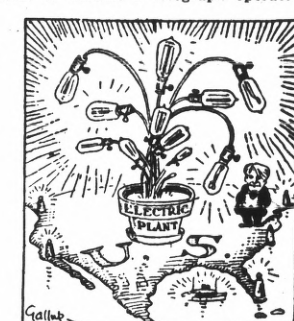

Rann-dom Reels

By HOWARD L. RANN

THOMAS A. EDISON

THOMAS A. EDISON is a sleepless genius who invented the short-watt method of measuring electricity, which has made the electric light business in this country more profitable than running a hot tamale booth at an Old Settlers' picnic.

Mr. Edison is conceded by both press and public to be one of the best and most fertile inventors the United States has ever produced. He formed the habit in early youth and has never gotten over it. He began life as a train boy, and sold the unexpurgated yellow-backed novel and the plastic gum drop with great success. But he was not satisfied. Something within him, which has been bothering him ever since, impelled him on and led him to become a telegraph operator,

Edison has made the electric light business in this country more profitable than running a hot tamale booth at an Old Settlers' picnic.

When he first came in contact with the kind of electricity which produces head-end collisions. After Mr. Edison had learned the Morse alphabet so that he could tell a dash from a semi-colon his inventive genius began to break out faster than a fat boy with the measles. Whenever he wanted something that nobody else had thought of, he would go out and invent it and then cry "Eureka," after having it patented in several different languages. Most of Mr. Edison's patents are still doing business at the old stand.

Mr. Edison gives away a great deal of money without advertising for bids and has helped many a young man to get somewhere on his own power. He rises at 4 a. m. and mingles with fuses, retorts, crucibles, spark plugs and other forms of inanimate life until midnight. He is one of the few Americans who have the cross of the Legion of Honor pinned neatly over the plaid. He sleeps with a pencil over his left ear and a tablet under his pillow, thus making it impossible for any meritorious invention to get away.

TIMELY ADVICE IN ADDRESSES AT FOREIGN TRADE CONVENTION

Among the noteworthy addresses made at the Seventh National Trade Convention at San Francisco last week, were those of F. L. Lipman, vice-president of Wells Fargo Nevada National Bank and that of Frank B. Anderson.

The subject of Mr. Lipman's address was, "The Financial Situation as Applied to Foreign Trade," which should be read by all who wish to become familiar with the business relations of our country with foreign nations.

Mr. Anderson in his address made the following suggestive statement which should be remembered, if we would keep the ship of finance from rocking and put the vessel on an even keel, headed for a port of safety:

"The government must have the money to keep, it solvent, but the people should demand that the government come to a realization of the necessity for living in its income, and that it has no income other than that which its people will produce and part with, without having their initiative and desire to work destroyed."

INDUSTRIAL DEVELOPMENT IS HANDICAPPED BY LUMBER SHORTAGE

Industrial development in the United States will require tremendous quantities of structural lumber. The accumulated demand for lumber is increasing while production is decreasing.

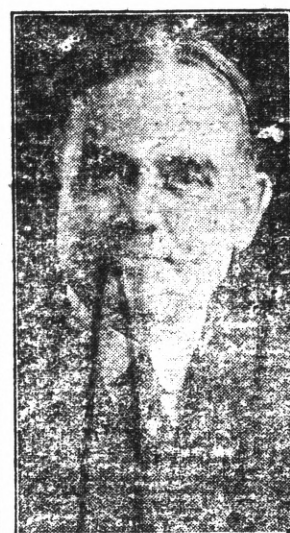

In 1908 the country at large cut 46,000,000,000 feet; the same in 1907; in 1916 the production dropped to 40,000,000,000; in 1917 to 37,000,000,000 feet and in 1918 to 32,000,000,000.

The production of forest products probably never will increase beyond its present proportions for the simple reason that the lumber producing districts are exhausting their supply. The forests of the northwest and California contain the last great available supply of timber and in the future the country will come to the Pacific coast for its lumber.

The demand for lumber is increasing faster than production can take care of it and instead of cheaper lumber prices it takes a great stretch of the imagination to see considerable higher prices 5 years hence and no man would be safe in predicting what the price will be 10 years from now.

"I suppose in the next decade we will have regular air lines of travel." "Do you think they will finance them with banks of clouds?"

CALIFORNIAN APPOINTED AS FINANCIAL DIRECTOR

LYMAN L. PIERCE

Director General of the Interchurch Financial Campaign.

Lyman L. Pierce, Red Cross and United War Work campaign leader, and formerly general secretary of the San Francisco Y. M. C. A., has been appointed Director General of the United Simultaneous Financial Campaign of the Interchurch World Movement for $356,777,572 in 1920.

Pierce, who is generally known in Y. M. C. A. circles throughout California, Arizona and Nevada, wrote the Plan Book of the National Red Cross Campaign, as well as taking an active part in several of the national war work drives.

"We must have unmistakable denominational autonomy and independence, combined with a maximum of team play."

"The national financial objective of the Interchurch World Movement will be the sum total of all the accepted budgets of all denominational forward movements engaged in the campaign. Each state financial objective will be an equitable share of the national objective. All money raised will be spent by the various denominations participating, each denomination to receive all the money subscribed through its local constituency."

"That's the new price, sir," answered the barber.

"Very well, sir. If you wish me to, I'll trim your ears without extra charge."
